(r) Not allow an individual who is affected by a disease in a communicable form, a carrier of such a disease, or afflicted with boils, sores, infected wounds, or other abnormal sources of microbiological contamination to work in the provisioning center in any capacity in which there is a reasonable possibility that food or food ingredients will become contaminated or that the disease will be transmitted to other individuals.

(s) Require all individuals working in direct contact with food preparation, food ingredients, or surfaces coming into contact with food ingredients to do all of the following:

(i) Wear clean outer garments, maintain a high degree of personal cleanliness, and conform to hygienic practices while on duty to the extent necessary to prevent contamination of food products.

(ii) Before starting work, after each absence from the work station, and at any other time when hands may have become soiled or contaminated, wash their hands thoroughly in an adequate hand washing facility and sanitize their hands if necessary to prevent contamination.

(iii) Remove any jewelry that cannot be adequately sanitized and all insecure jewelry from hands when food is manipulated by hand.

(iv) Maintain any gloves used in food handling in an intact, clean, and sanitary condition and use only gloves made of an impermeable material, except when that usage would be inappropriate or incompatible with the work involved.

(v) Wear effective hairnets, headbands, or caps to constrain the hair properly.

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted ‘no’ on HB4816 because

(1) I’m not comfortable requiring (unfunded mandate) businesses to make this computation and tell them they must put it on their bills to their customers and

(2) I believe the calculation of Obamacare is so subjective that the ‘cost’ to citizens will be calculated way too low in many estimations — for one thing, how do you put a ‘cost’ on the tremendous loss of freedom that results from Obamacare. And how in the world will each insurance company put a price on how much higher premiums are for customers due to loss of competition, loss of options, pre-existing conditions costs, keeping children on until 26, etc?”

Rep. Howrylak, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This bill is bad public policy because it creates a regulatory obligation for private industry solely to prove a political point. While no fan of Obamacare, I believe that it is unfair to burden an industry with this data mining mission. Voluntary reporting would certainly be preferable to mandatory reporting. Furthermore, there is no consistent system for measuring the burden of Obamacare. As a result, the data that will be reported to the State will neither be consistent nor comparable and thus will not be very effective. This bill is entirely unnecessary.”

Reps. McCann, Kandrevas, Brown, Darany, Denby, Durhal, Heise, Hovey-Wright, Kelly, Roberts, Slavens, Stanley, Barnett, Cavanagh, Geiss, Greimel, O'Brien, Poleski, Schor and Singh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 278.

A resolution to commemorate the life of Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela and the indelible impact he had on the state of Michigan, the United States of America, and the entire world community.

Whereas, Nelson Mandela was born on July 18, 1918 in Mveso, Transkei, South Africa, and educated at Wesleyan College, University College of Fort Hare, University of London and the University of Witwatersrand at Johannesburg; and

Whereas, Nelson Mandela became actively involved in the anti-apartheid movement and joined the African National Congress in 1942, spending the next 20 years organizing nonviolent acts against the racist policies of the South African government; and

Whereas, Nelson Mandela was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1963 for political offenses and sent to Robben Island for 18 years and then transferred to Pollsmoor Prison in 1982; and

Whereas, The world community watched as the events unfolded in South Africa and students on college campuses across the United States marched in protest to urge their schools to divest from investment in South Africa; and

Whereas, David Wiley, who directed Michigan State University's African Studies Center, stated, "Michigan responded to Mandela's challenge to support democracy and freedom in South Africa and perhaps in more depth than other states and other universities did. There was no other state that passed three bills of sanction from 1982 to 1986."; and

Whereas, Michigan State University was the first public university in the country to divest its interests from South Africa and the State of Michigan was the first state to do so; and

Whereas, Former Michigan Congressman Howard Wolpe played a pivotal role in ensuring that the 1986 Anti-Apartheid Act, which required that Mandela be released from prison and imposed sanctions became law; and

Whereas, Steve McDonald, director of the Africa program at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars stated that, "One of the first calls that Mandela made when he was finally released in 1990 was to Howard Wolpe to thank him for playing the role he did in passing the law."; and

Whereas, Upon his release after 27 years in prison, this gracious humble man willingly agreed to work with President F. W. de Klerk for the betterment of his country to peacefully rid it of apartheid and prepare the way for every adult to have the right to vote; and

Whereas, In 1991 Nelson Mandela was elected president of the African National Congress and he and President de Klerk were both awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993 for their tireless efforts in abolishing apartheid. South Africa proudly held its first democratic elections in April, 1994 and Nelson Mandela was inaugurated South Africa's first black president the following month at the age of 77; and

Whereas, The University of Michigan and Western Michigan University both awarded Nelson Mandela honorary degrees and Michigan State University presented him with an honorary doctor of laws degree; and

Whereas, Nelson Mandela spent his entire life dedicated to securing freedom, respect and human rights for all. This courageous quiet man gave the world its finest example of tolerance and reconciliation and has left a shining legacy of dignity, patience, and peace; and

Whereas, Nelson Mandela passed away in South Africa on December 5, 2013; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the life of Nelson Mandela and the indelible impact he had on the state of Michigan, the United States of America and the entire world community.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. McCann moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Reps. Howrylak, Kesto, Callton, Robinson, Santana, Olumba, Franz, Switalski, Genetski, Barnett, Cavanagh, Darany, Durhal, Geiss, Greimel and Kelly offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 281.

A resolution to stand in solidarity with the Ukrainian people and to encourage the Ukrainian government to support a democratic society where its citizens have the right to assemble and express themselves.

Whereas, Over a million demonstrators have amassed throughout Ukraine to voice their dissent with President Viktor Yanukovich's decision to abandon a free trade agreement with the European Union. Instead, President Yanukovich has chosen to seek greater economic ties with Russia, in spite of promising to position Ukraine as a bridge between Russia and the European Union; and

Whereas, Ukrainian authorities used violence to disperse many of the peaceful demonstrators. Governments should not condone the use of force. They should respect the principles of a free and civil society and the basic human right to life and liberty. We applaud Secretary of State John Kerry for expressing disgust with the decision of the Ukrainian authorities to meet the peaceful protest in Kiev's Maidan Square with riot police, bulldozers, and batons, rather than with respect for democratic rights and human dignity; and

Whereas, There is a sizeable Ukrainian community in Michigan that looks at events that are occurring in Ukraine with great concern; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we stand in solidarity with the Ukrainian people in their desire to be free from an oppressive regime and to live in a civil society where freedoms are respected and the marketplace of ideas, free speech, and thought are encouraged; and be it further

Resolved, That we encourage the Ukrainian government to support a democratic society where its citizens have the right to assemble and express themselves without fear of retribution and imprisonment; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Ambassador of Ukraine to the United States.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Howrylak moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 281.

A resolution to stand in solidarity with our Ukrainian community in Michigan and to commend Secretary of State John Kerry's timely response in requesting that the government of Ukraine not abandon the course of a democratic society where its citizens have the right to assemble peacefully.

Whereas, Over a million demonstrators have amassed throughout Ukraine to voice their dissent with President Viktor Yanukovich's decision to align with Russia and abandon a free trade agreement with the European Union; and

Whereas, The Ukrainian authorities met the peaceful protest in Kiev's Maidan Square with riot police, bulldozers, and batons, rather than with respect for democratic rights and human dignity; and

Whereas, There is a sizeable Ukrainian community in Michigan that looks at events that are occurring in Ukraine with great concern; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we stand in solidarity with our Ukrainian community in Michigan as they support the Ukrainian people in their desire to be free from an oppressive regime and to live in a civil society where freedoms are respected and the marketplace of ideas, free speech, and thought are encouraged without fear of retribution and imprisonment; and be it further

Resolved, That we commend Secretary of State John Kerry's timely response in requesting that the government of Ukraine not abandon the course of a democratic society where its citizens have the right to assemble peacefully.

Rep. Foster offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 282.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to repeal section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

Whereas, In response to the 2008 economic recession, the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act was enacted in July 2010 to increase accountability and improve transparency in the nation's financial system. Among its provisions, section 1502 of the act creates new reporting requirements for publically traded companies that produce products containing gold, tin, tantalum, or tungsten, known as "conflict minerals." These reporting requirements and their public disclosure are meant to deter the purchase of conflict minerals from the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) and the surrounding nations of Central Africa Republic, South Sudan, Zambia, Angola, the Republic of the Congo, Tanzania, Burundi, Rwanda, and Uganda; and

Whereas, The final rules on section 1502, issued by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), taking effect May 31, 2014, is exceedingly complex and detrimental to American manufacturers, creating new, overly taxing compliance costs, especially for American small businesses, as well as unrealistic and burdensome reporting requirements. The new rules require publically traded manufacturers to trace conflict minerals through their entire supply chain, all the way back to the smelter. The SEC estimates the initial cost of compliance to be between $3 billion and $4 billion, with annual costs thereafter between $207 million and $609 million. However, the National Association of Manufacturers estimates total costs to be $16 billion; and

Whereas, The SEC rule on conflict minerals jeopardizes Michigan's unparalleled efforts to restructure, create an improved business environment, and recover jobs lost during the recent recession. According to the Bureau of Labor and Statistics, as of October of this year, our unemployment rate of 9 percent ranked 48th among the states, 1.7 percent higher than the nation's average. Moreover, the stalwart of the Michigan economy—manufacturing—is still recovering. The state of Michigan condemns the human rights violations occurring in the DRC and surrounding nations. However, absorbing the exorbitant costs of complying with section 1502 will undermine our footing in the ongoing battle to grow manufacturing jobs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to repeal section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Chairman of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Financial Services.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Hobbs, Barnett, Cavanagh, Darany, Durhal, Geiss, Greimel, Hovey-Wright, Roberts, Singh, Slavens and Stanley offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 18.

A concurrent resolution to urge Governor Snyder to uphold Michigan’s commitment to the principles of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Basin Water Resources Compact and to veto the city of Waukesha’s request for a diversion from Lake Michigan.

Whereas, The Great Lakes contain more than 18 percent of the world’s, and more than 90 percent of North America’s, fresh surface water and provide drinking water to more than 9 million Michigan residents; and

Whereas, Michigan and its economy are defined by the Great Lakes and depend on its abundance of freshwater for manufacturing, tourism, fishing, public water supplies, agriculture, and numerous other uses. Maintaining a healthy Great Lakes system creates jobs and improves Michigan’s quality of life. It leads to increases in tourism, the fishing industry, and recreational activity; reductions in costs to municipalities; and increases in property values in coastal areas; and

Whereas, The 2008 Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Basin Water Resources Compact is the first-ever shared management, wise-use regional water conservation strategy to protect the world-class resources of the Great Lakes. The compact provides enforceable legal and environmental standards approved by all the Great Lakes states and the U.S. Congress that both provide for regional water needs and protect the Great Lakes; and

Whereas, The compact prohibits diversions out of the Great Lakes basin, with only limited exceptions for communities bordering the basin. The ban on using Great Lakes water beyond the boundary was established, in part, to keep the drought-stricken areas of the country from siphoning off the region’s greatest resource; and

Whereas, The city of Waukesha, Wisconsin, has filed an application with the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources to divert 10.1 million gallons of water per day from the Great Lakes. The application is the first step in getting approval for a water diversion. The city is the first community located outside of the Great Lakes basin, but in a county that straddles the basin boundary, to apply for a diversion from the Great Lakes under the compact. Such communities can request to use water from the basin but must have approval from all eight Great Lakes governors and meet other conditions; and

Whereas, The city of Waukesha's proposal fails to meet the principles of the compact. The limited exception for communities bordering the Great Lakes is to meet the current and critical needs of communities with no other drinking water options, not to support extensive future economic growth outside of the basin; and

Whereas, An approval of the request will set a precedent for countless other bordering communities across the region to use Great Lakes water without demonstrating a critical need. At least seven other cities in Wisconsin, Indiana, and Ohio are in the same situation as Waukesha. It is imperative that the state of Michigan demonstrate its commitment to the compact and set a precedent to protect its principles of designed wise-use conservation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we urge Governor Snyder to uphold Michigan's commitment to the principles of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Basin Water Resources Compact and to veto the city of Waukesha's request for a diversion from Lake Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the Governor.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources.

Explanation of "No" Votes

Rep. Abed, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 661, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on Senate Bill 661 which would change Michigan elections by allowing for special interests to spend more money on politicians and campaigns while weakening financial disclosure. Michigan's Secretary of State had recently stated her intent to increase transparency and disclosure and this bill was an effort to thwart that attempt. We need more accountability and less money in politics and this bill does the opposite. At the last moment an amendment was added which required disclosure for robo calls. Months ago I had cosponsored a stand alone bill on transparency in robo calls which still sits in committee. I cannot support the bill today which increases the limit on campaigns and weakens transparency but will continue to advocate for the passage of the bill I cosponsored which deals with robo calls."

Reps. Dianda, Slavens, Haugh, Lamonte, Yanez, Hovey-Wright and Brinks, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 661, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on Senate Bill 661 which would change Michigan elections by allowing special interests to spend more money on politicians and campaigns while weakening financial disclosure. I support increased financial reporting and disclosure for entities that pay for robocalls, but this bill does much more than that. It doubles campaign contribution limits, and it prohibits Michigan's Secretary of State from requiring disclosure of so-called 'soft money' donors. These provisions entrench pay-to-play politics and thwart transparency. The problems associated with them outweigh the benefits of requiring transparency regarding robocalls. Of all the problems Michigan faces, how to get more money into politics doesn't make the list."

Rep. Driskell, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 661, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on Senate Bill 661 because it would significantly change Michigan elections by allowing special interests to spend more money on politicians and campaigns while weakening financial disclosure. I would support increased financial reporting and disclosure for entities that pay for robocalls, but this bill does much more than that. It doubles campaign contribution limits, and it prohibits Michigan's Secretary of State from requiring disclosure of so-called 'soft money' donors. This is not what my constituents want to see happen, they have communicated with me that they are tired of seeing so much money involved in politics and so little accountability."

Rep. Dillon, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 661, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Mr. Speaker I rise today in strong opposition to SB 661, a bill which should put the final nail in the coffin of public respect for the Legislature.

Mr. Speaker, I challenge any member of this Legislature to find one constituent in this state not on the payroll of a politician, PAC or special interest group that thinks doubling the amount of money in politics is a good idea.

But I do want to give the supporters of this bill due credit for trying to cloak this blatantly self serving attempt to protect incumbents and entrenched special interests with the absolute minimum bit of disclosure reform. Because, it is clear that supporters of this bill are betting that a bit of cheap spray paint and a gas station air freshener will trick people into buying this clunker.

And I would also be remiss if I didn't note the admirable consistency with which the majority uses the month of December to bestow gifts upon themselves and their corporate friends. Last year, we know who the legislature thought was naughty and who was nice, and ironically the nice list seemed to be look similar to their campaign finance report.

And now this year, while hard working families and seniors across Michigan, many of which have had their taxes raised by Michigan Republicans look upon the holiday season as a time to give to others, perhaps even donating their spare change to a bell ringer outside of the mall, or a toy to a child in need, the majority in this body take a different view of Christmas giving and are wrapping up a big present to themselves of increased donations from their maxed out donors. And this isn't a one time gift. No, the legislature in keeping with this spirit of giving (to themselves) is indexing these limits to inflation, so that no future legislator or big donor will ever have to worry about explaining to voters why the amount of money in their campaign accounts keeps getting bigger, while their own bank accounts are getting smaller.

So Mr. Speaker, in conclusion, I urge members to reject SB 661 and send the gift they are about to give themselves back to Santa Claus, Kris Kringle, the Easter Bunny, the tooth fairy or whatever other magical mythical figure they think will approve of this bill."
